

Ancient Values, Emerging Issues

Engaging in Contemporary Ethical Reasoning

Thursday 23 May, 2019 from 4:30pm – 7:30pm
Catholic Institute Sydney, 99 Albert Road Strathfield

Our ever changing world continues to face new and more complex ethical issues. Ancient Values, Emerging Issues will broaden our understanding of how religious traditions are responding to technological and social change.

Participants will engage with processes of ethical reasoning, applying the established values of different religious traditions to issues of bioethics, sexuality and the environment.

This course is free of charge for ASR members. Non-members will be invoiced $50. Participants will complete 3 hours of PD towards achieving or maintaining Proficient status against the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers
