

one body? spirit?

unity & diversity in contemporary Christianity

Thursday 29 August, 2019 from 4:30pm – 8pm
Catholic Institute Sydney, 99 Albert Road Strathfield

One Body, One Spirit will explore diversity in the lived expression of contemporary Christianity with leading figures from Australia's three largest Christian denominations. Participants will broaden their course content knowledge and strengthen their understanding of the way in which diversity and unity can be expressed in student responses to improve student learning outcomes.

This course is free of charge for ASR members. Non-members will be invoiced $50. Participants will complete 3 hours of PD towards achieving or maintaining Proficient status against the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers

asr

ASSOCIATION FOR STUDIES OF RELIGION